Two-day conference on skill development concludes

THE HINDU NEWS SERVICE

CHANDIGARH, FEBRUARY 19

A two-day international conference on the topic "Sustainable Skill Development: Challenges and Future Perspectives" concluded with a valedictory address by Punjab University Vice-Chancellor Anur Kumar Grover at National Institute Technical Teachers' Training and Research (NITTTR) here on Friday.

As many as 30 papers, focusing on the current scenario of skill development across the world, innovative ideas, initiatives and ongoing schemes of various governments, were presented in several technical sessions today.

The recommendations of the participating countries as well as research groups will be sent to the policy makers involved in the Skill Development Mission in India.

In his valedictory address, Prof. Grover emphasised that the youth should be given a proper direction with right skills and attitude. In the valedictory session, important outcomes of the international conference were presented.

Dr. MP Poonia, Director of NITTTR, thanked the delegates and experts for participating in the conference.

As part of the international conference, the fourth panel discussion on the topic "Skill Development: India's challenge, Energy and Make in India" was organised at the PEC University of Technology, Chandigarh.

Main speakers at the conference were Sachin Sharma, Mamta Arora, Ghanshyam Singh, Vice-Chancellor, PUNJAB UNIVERSITY and SP Chairman.

Prof. UN Roy and YK Anand presented a paper on experience of the Community Development Through Polytechnics (CDTP) scheme in northern India and emphasised on its revision.

Prof. K. Gopal from the P.T. Chandigarh, emphasised the need for skill development in the rural-affected areas of Jharkhand, West Bengal and Odisha.

Dr. Surjit Kaur: Sikh dharm te baki dharman wich Istri de saroop da tulnatamik adian
