

Spoken English and Basic computer course for students of every course

Students listening live to Honorable Prime Minister of India to discuss and burst away stress before final examination on his program "Pariksha Pe Charcha" organized by HRD department of Govt. of India.

Students are felicitated with merit certificates by Managing Committee for academic achievements in examination