Dedicated to Corona Warriors

PRESIDENT S. Sangat Singh Longia

Greetings to Amar Shaheed Baba Ajit singh Jujhar singh Memorial College Bela Ropar. As we continue to traverse the disruptions and challenges caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, I'd like to express my gratitude for how our college has been responding, during this challenging time. I appreciate the hard work and resourcefulness shown by our faculty and staff during this period. They have worked untiringly to develop and implement ways to support our students and help sustain their academic progress. I'd also like to thank our students for being supple and patient under such stressful circumstances. As developments continue to unfold, we will remain vigilant and will respond to the best of our ability. And we will appeal strength from the values that tell us who we are and what we stand for. I look forward to seeing you on campus again soon. In the meantime, we will get through this by working together, looking out for each other and lifting each other up. Best wishes.

SECRETARY, S. Jagwinder Singh Pammi

In these difficult times, I would like to reach out to you through this newsletter. COVID-19 with its sudden disruptions has changed our routines and lifestyles. Each one of us and the entire world is affected by the corona Pandemic. This pandemic has accelerated existential issues like individual loneliness in the wake of lockdowns, quarantine and isolations, disturbances of social life, polluting the interpersonal space with distrust of each other; in short our entire way of life is adversely affected by the panic of COVID- 19 and has created novel psychological situation for people. It has shaken the economy of the country enormously and its consequences are experienced by our families, communities and our entire way of life. We understand the challenges faced by the students, Parents and the teachers to cater to the academic needs during this period and adapting to virtual learning. However the importance of education remains consistent. We need to be prepared to take life ahead with all our normal activities according to the new normal. Humanity has seen worse, and every time we have bounced back. We will, again. Being hopeful is the key.

MANAGER, S. Sukhwinder Singh Whisky

I would like to send you sincere greetings from the College through this newsletter of IQAC. Each one of us and the entire world is affected by the coronavirus pandemic and our way of life are adversely affected. My top priority remains the health and safety of everyone on our campus. I remain committed to a learning and working environment that allows our students, faculty (teaching and non-teaching) to feel secure. It is heartening to see that the calamity has connected all of us like never before. Our staff, have been showing their concern for the College and engaging classes online for the benefit of students. This is the moment we are called to be our best selves in tune with the vision and mission of Bela College, I am sure all of us have been practising social distancing. This is the best way to counter the pandemic. Be optimistic. You're braver than you believe and stronger than you seem, and smarter than you think - so follow the safety guidelines and sanitization protocols to defeat Coronavirus. Keep your face to the sunshine and Stay positive, stay safe and save lives.

Principal, Dr. Satwant Kaur Shahi

Dear students,

I am immensely gratified and pleased to welcome you to half yearly Newsletter of our College. This newsletter will showcase all the academic, extra-curricular, cultural and religious developments occurred in the college during Covid-19 period. As Covid-19 cases surge in, it will be very important for us to protect ourselves and our loved ones during this difficult time. It is significant to remember that Covid-19 does not differentiate between gender, age, cast, religion or borders. So it is our moral duty to prevent corona virus transmission by taking necessary precautions and supporting control measures.

Our dedicated staff, both teaching and non-teaching, have been showing their care and concern for the overall progression of the students by engaging them through various modes. I appreciate their concern for the students and commitment to academics. All these will also lead to imbibing of digital skills, one of the most required literacy skills of the 21st century. Dear students, the college remains lifeless without your active presence. These are times when we have to stand together as one family belonging to the entire world. We pray for a quick control of the COVID-19 Pandemic, for a healing of those affected, their families and health care personals.

Have a warm and safe season.

Co-ordinator (IQAC), Dr. Mamta Arora

We trust that this is the time to not just deal with the existing emergency, but also shape foundations of resilience to face such tough dealings in the future. Let us consider this challenge as an opportunity. The COVID 19 Pandemic should not lockdown the aspiration of our young generation. Dear stakeholders, Faculty members and students, take the lead and work to develop new e- teaching learning skills. Students should remain active and receptive and use the extended lockdown to learn new skills. It may be as simple as improving English, or language skills, public speaking, play an instrument, cooking, housekeeping, gardening, personality development etc. Keep fit with meditation, yoga and other fitness programs. You tube videos and other free, online courses and forums can help you a lot to learn lot of skills and knowledge. Wishing you good luck
